Attending the launch of her close friend Sarah Parish's fitness centre last week, the 42-year-old embraced the summery spell in floral shorts and a white vest with neon trim. The outfit was from Argentinean designer Veronica Moncho Lobo.

Another fashionable look from Amanda came as she attended the wrap party of Britain's Got Talent, following the final on Saturday night.

Looking nowhere near her 42 years, the judge wowed in a black minidress with a cutout panel that showed a hint of midriff.

HELLO! Online's favourite judging panel outfit was the showstopping floor-sweeping gown that she wore for the first live semi-final of the hit show.

Amanda tweeted the details of her outfit, revealing that the white, flower-adorned dress was designed by J'Aton Couture.

"Tonight's dress is by @JAtonCouture, Shoes by Charlotte Olympia @charlottes_web, Jewellery by Kiki <http://www.kiki.co.uk>," she said.
